

Community

Naloxone Training

Prevent an opioid overdose. Save a life.

During this FREE training, you'll learn:

How to recognize
an opioid overdose

All about naloxone
(NARCAN)

About Steve's Law (MN's Good Samaritan and Naloxone Legislation)

PLUS:

See a demo of naloxone administration

Get your own naloxone kit!

Wednesday,
October 22nd
11am-1pm

Red Wing Public Library
225 East Ave
Red Wing, MN 55066

Questions? Please contact:

Jen Dieck

jend@HVMHC.org

This training is hosted by:

Hiawatha Valley Mental Health Center

FREE Community Naloxone Training!

Hiawatha Valley Mental Health Center is hosting a FREE Community Naloxone Training. Naloxone is a life-saving medicine that can rapidly reverse an opioid overdose.

During this training, you'll learn:

- How to recognize the signs of an opioid overdose
- All about naloxone (Narcan)
- About Steve's Law (Minnesota's Good Samaritan and Naloxone Legislation)
- How to administer Naloxone
- Get your own FREE naloxone kit

 Date: Wednesday, October 22nd, 2025

 Time: 11a.m. - 1p.m.

 Location: Red Wing Public Library, 225 East Ave Red Wing, MN 55066

ALL are welcome, no registration required!

Questions?

Contact Jen Dieck at jend@hvmhc.org

The Mental & Chemical Health Conveners

We are jointly facilitating the Mental™.Chemical.Health.Coalition meetings to create a strengthened and unified framework to improve mental™.chemical.health and reduce duplication in Goodhue County. Our vision is for a Goodhue County that has healthy and thriving kids and adults;

Goodhue County Child & Family Collaborative
Strong Families. Resilient Children.

MAYO CLINIC
HEALTH SYSTEM

Goodhue County
MINNESOTA

Community Health
Assessment
(CHA) Committee

Supported by the Statewide Health Improvement Partnership,
Minnesota Department of Health

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA EXTENSION

Copyright. 2018. Goodhue County Child & Family Collaborative. All rights reserved.