Join us on November 12th at Minnesota State College SE Red Wing Campus for our Fall 2026 Meeting!

Thursday, November 12th

10am - 2pm

Minnesota State College SE, Red Wing Campus (308 Pioneer Rd, Red Wing, MN 55066)

The agenda will include opportunities to learn about:

- Goodhue County's Local Advisory Council on adult mental health, a group of people with lived experience and professionals working to make a difference in how mental health care is provided. They will also be sharing the results from their recent Unmet Needs Survey.

- Meet the new crisis responder based in Goodhue County and learn the strengths and differences between mental health crisis resources like 988, Mobile Crisis Response (844-274-7472), and stabilization services.
- What are Kratom and 7-OH, often called "gas station heroin", and the most recent legislative updates.
- Program to Encourage Active, Rewarding Lives (PEARLs), a new evidence-based program in Southeast MN designed to reduce depressive symptoms and improve quality of life.
- Explore the CredibleMind platform that is coming to Goodhue County and help inform what information and resources will be featured on the platform

We will also be hosting a FREE lunch and networking event between the morning and afternoon sessions.

Registration for this event is required so we can plan meals accordingly.
