

Red Wing Arts presents
PICTURES OF MY COMMUNITY
On view April 21 - May 22

This exhibit features the photography of Red Wing area high school students that are part of the student-led STAR Team through Goodhue County Health & Human Services. The work explores how addiction and mental health struggles quietly exist in everyday life, as well as the ordinary items and moments that bring hope, comfort, and healing.

Located at the Clay & Creative Center - 436 W 3rd St

Reception

Friday, May 1 | 4-6 pm

View the work and enjoy a meal with other community members. Free and open to all.
