Explain nature or content of course:

This course examines the skill of statutory interpretation in the context of the legal and doctrinal underpinnings of the substantive criminal law. The course will address: the elements of crimes against persons and property, the theories justifying punishment, the principles of criminal responsibility, and the defenses to criminal liability. The course will also address the practical and ethical application of these principles.

This application is submitted for approval of tuition reimbursement for the above in accordance with the provisions and conditions of the Tuition Reimbursement Policy. My enrollment in this course is voluntary and I understand that my time spent taking the course will not be considered as time worked for Goodhue County. I understand the required vesting period as stated in the Tuition Reimbursement Policy and elect to reimburse the County if the vesting period requirement is not met.
