COVID-19 Response

All Goodhue Co. public libraries closed to the public between March 16-18

- Initial Response:
 - Curbside pick-up for materials
 - Online programming via social media and/or YouTube
 - Instant Digital Cards for digital materials

COVID-19 Response

- Minnesota Stay Home Order
 - Library buildings remain closed to the public
 - Online programming continued via social media, Zoom, GoToMeeting, YouTube, etc.
 - i.e. story time, book groups, Lego Club, fitness classes, crafting classes, etc.
 - Locations which were providing curbside service suspended curbside service
 - Many locations had staff work from home and/or limited staff inside the library building
 - On location made free books & activity packs available

COVID-19 Response

- A Slow & Safe Reopening: Preparing
 - All locations created Covid-19 Preparedness Plans following state guidelines
 - Some locations installed plexiglass barriers, removed furniture to ensure proper distancing, purchased PPE for staff, purchased appropriate cleaning supplies, invested in self-check machine

COVID-19 Response

- A Slow & Safe Reopening: Welcoming Back the Public
 - Curbside service resumed in mid-April or early May depending on location
 - Most locations started allowing access for computer, fax, copy, print services by appointment only in May
 - Some locations started providing home delivery
 - By the end of June, all Goodhue Co. libraries were open at least by appointment for general browsing

COVID-19 Response

- A Slow & Safe Reopening: Moving Forward
 - Mostly Virtual Summer Reading Programs
 - Several locations using the Beanstack App
 - Some libraries are resuming in-person programming, but only outdoors
 - i.e. story time in the park, Book-a-Lunch, book clubs, fitness classes, Story Stroll
- Online programming continues
 - New programs are being created to facilitate discussion and education on hot topic issues such as social justice and racial equality
- We plan to operate in our current phases throughout the summer

Thank you for your continued support of libraries in Goodhue County.
